Residential Development in Playas del Coco Playa de las Palmas

Now you can own property in a marvelous place surrounded by mountains and beaches, a tranquil and natural place for you and your family. Living in Playas de las Palmas is living away from noise and pollution and instead enjoying scenery and view of incomparable beauty. Here we can build your house designed to your needs and your likes. Las Palmas is planned to offer over 5 acres in commercial services and over 54 acres of residential areas with 198 beach homes located in Playas del Coco, province of Guanacaste in Costa Rica. This project includes complete infrastructure, asphalted roads, sidewalks, electric power, and with the price of lots around US$ 50 m2, plus flexible financing makes this project very attractive.
